

Bastille

Design by Patrick Norguet

Bastille is a seating family made up of a dining, lounge and bar stool with a minimalist, yet luxurious aesthetic. The collection was designed specifically with hospitality environments in mind although with the increased merging of interior styles in corporate and hospitality markets the collection could easily transition across both.

Design Patrick Norguet

An icon of French Design, Patrick Norguet draws inspiration from the world around us. He designs products whose relevance and modernity withstand the test of time. Patrick Norguet's design background in the fashion world has helped create the ideal union between fashion, design and a renowned "French touch" across his industrial design and interior design projects. In 2000 he opened his personal design office and was awarded "Designer of the Year" in 2005. Some of his works are part of permanent museum collections such as the Museum of Modern Art in New York.
